

Check that your complementary health insurance provider has your correct postal address

Check that your complementary health insurance provider has your bank details. If not please provide them

Register a regular doctor (medecin traitant) during an appointment. The doctor will forward the relevant form to your complementary health insurance provider

Update your health card (carte vitale). Use a terminal in the CPAM social security centres, or in a chemist or other health centres.